

2025 IDA Georgia Sponsors & Community Partners

Schools, organizations, and businesses supporting dyslexia
across Georgia

Gratitude

We are grateful for the schools, organizations, and community partners who support the work and mission of IDA Georgia.

IDA's Mission

To create a future for all individuals who struggle with dyslexia and other related reading differences so that they may have richer, more robust lives and access to the tools and resources they need.

FROM KINDERGARTEN TO HIGH SCHOOL — A PLACE WHERE EVERY STUDENT IS CELEBRATED AND SUPPORTED

75
Years

For 75 years, The Howard School has been at the forefront of educating students with dyslexia, dyscalculia, dysgraphia, ADHD, and expressive/receptive language disorders. As one of the nation's oldest schools dedicated to language-based learning differences, The Howard School provides a continuum of support from kindergarten through 12th grade.

LOWER SCHOOL
(K-5):

Building a strong foundation in literacy, executive function, and self-confidence.

MIDDLE SCHOOL
(6-8):

A supportive environment that balances academics with independence and resilience.

HIGH SCHOOL
(9-12):

Offering college and next steps counseling, excursions, internships, no-cut athletics and arts, and leadership opportunities.

NEW AVENUES

DYSLEXIA PROGRAM

THE WALKER SCHOOL

Our “school within a school” program is designed to serve children with dyslexia who have above-average academic aptitude and a strong desire to fulfill their abundant potential.

We are all Wolverines! New Avenues students are part of the larger school community and participate with their grade-level peers in co-curricular activities, including science, technology, art, PE, recess and lunch.

“Our New Avenues Dyslexia Program teaches students in ways that best suit their individual learning needs. As students begin to feel success, their self-esteem and self-advocacy grow.”

Since 1959, The Schenck School has been dedicated to its mission of transforming the lives of students with dyslexia. Through our unique, focused, and accelerated approach, we successfully remediate students, enabling them to return to traditional schools with confidence.

In 2013, ReadSource was launched as a non-profit outreach branch dedicated to empowering communities to serve struggling readers. By sharing Schenck's reading expertise, ReadSource supports both struggling readers and the educators who help them, fostering a community where literacy transforms lives.

Saint Francis School

Structured Literacy In Action

“Saint Francis was the perfect fit for my child with dyslexia. In just one year, she became happier, more independent, and a confident reader.”

Literacy strategies are woven into everyday classroom instruction, with students practicing decoding, comprehension, writing, and vocabulary across all subjects.

Support happens within the classroom alongside consistent routines and executive-function coaching, allowing students to stay engaged with peers while building organization, confidence, and independence.

Fundations

Provides K - 3 students with foundational skills while supporting reading, writing, and language standards.

Wilson Reading

Provides an intensive two-year multi-sensory remediation program for students in 3rd through 5th grade.

Reading Comprehension

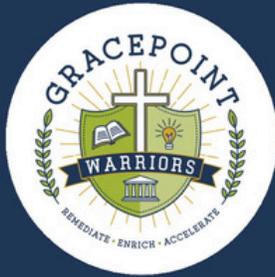

Provides instruction for 4th & 5th grade students requiring additional support in solidifying reading strategies.

Empowering Literacy Through Student-Led Advocacy

It starts with just one letter...

WriteToRead educates and empowers dyslexic students by

- Raising dyslexia awareness
- Emphasizing the value of early diagnosis
- Advocating for the science of reading
- Celebrating dyslexia as a strength

Through student-led communications, like our postcard campaigns at the local and national levels, we are speaking up for equitable education and supportive legislation for dyslexics.

We're gathering our (super)powers to make our voices heard, letter by letter. Join us!
